3. WRITING RULES

DRIVEWORKS IS BUILT AS A "RULES BASED ENGINE"

Everything that we do has rules to it. That's very much on purpose because that is how we think of DriveWorks. This is true of engineering, driving, cooking, you name it. Nevertheless, it is always surprising when people ask, "what kind of rules can I write?" You can write almost any rule you want.

DriveWorks uses Excel-based logic, which means if you don't know how to write a function in DriveWorks, try getting the same results from Excel, then it can be as easy as a copy and paste.

4. GETTING CERTIFIED

TAKE YOUR SKILLS TO THE NEXT LEVEL WITH THE FREE CERTIFICATION

DriveWorks offers a free, detailed, training and certification program. Overall, it takes about three hours to run through the class and certification itself. You'll go through a simple example of using DriveWorksXpress to automate the creation of a simple assembly.

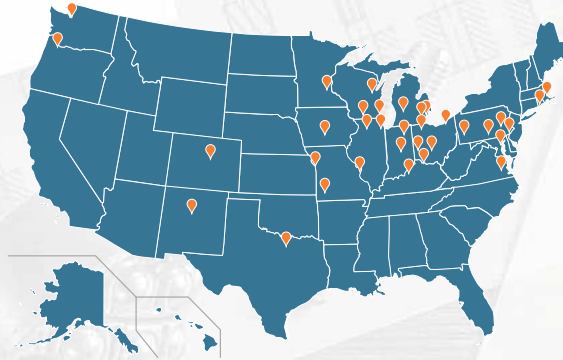

CERTIFICATION

SIMPLE LOGIC. EASY TO USE.
