3. WRITING RULES

DRIVEWORKS IS BUILT AS A "RULES-BASED ENGINE"

Everything that we do has rules to it - engineering, driving, cooking, etc., and DriveWorks does too. With DriveWorks, you can write almost any rule you want. DriveWorks uses Excel-based logic, which means if you don't know how to write a function in DriveWorks, try getting the same results from Excel, then it can be as easy as a copy and paste.
